Sunday, December 31:

"For I am the Lord, your God, who takes hold of your right hand and says to you, Do not fear; I will help you." (Isaiah 40:13)

Monday, January 1:

Pray for the character, courage, and perseverance to follow through on our resolutions, especially for more Quiet Time with the Lord.

Tuesday, January 2:

On this first Tuesday of January, pray for the Christian Revival of our country, Canada.

Wednesday, January 3:

Pray for those who are searching for a new mission in their lives.

Thursday, January 4:

Pray for strength and faith in the coming year to do what you know is right.

Friday, January 5:

Pray for adult siblings who have difficulty getting along.

Saturday, January 6:

Pray for people who seem different from others – people who, for various reasons, feel that they do not fit in.

Sunday, January 7:

"Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful."
(Colossians. 4:2)

Monday, January 8:

Pray for our children as they return to the classroom. May they have an attitude of kindness toward one another.

Tuesday, January 9:

Pray for those in our community who feel isolated because of poor health or advanced age.

Wednesday, January 10:

Pray that people burdened with stress and serious illness will allow their families and church communities to minister to them.

Thursday, January 11:

Pray for parents who are steering their children through their teenage years. May they be granted faith, firmness, perspective and humour.

Friday, January 12:

Pray for the people volunteering at Morrison Gardens each Friday afternoon; that God will grant them energy, focus, and patience.

Saturday, January 13:

Pray for immigrants and refugees, uprooted from their countries of origin as they struggle to adapt to Canada, especially the cold winter.

Sunday, January 14:

"Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone." (Col 4: 6)

Monday, January 15:

Pray for the people of St. Paul's preparing for the Annual General Meeting on February 26th.

Tuesday, January 16:

Pray for the loved ones and caregivers of those suffering from Alzheimer's.

Wednesday, January 17:

Pray for the Evangelical Fellowship of Canada, which has filed a complaint with the Ontario Human Rights Commission against Cineplex about their refusal to accept advertising from 'religious' organizations.

Thursday, January 18:

Pray for those who have bitterness and envy; that God's Holy Spirit of Forgiveness will come into their hearts.

Friday, January 19:

Pray for Jeremy Sauvé and the Youth Group as they study the Word and plan for both local and global missions.

Saturday, January 20:

Pray for hospital chaplains as they work to meet the needs of patients in our hospitals.

Sunday, January 21:

"Let everything that has breath praise the Lord." (Psalm 150: 6)

Monday, January 22:

Pray for Raymond Desmarais, Director of the Jericho Road Ministries, and for the recovering people living in their homes.

Tuesday, January 23:

Pray for Diane Morrison and her Staff at The Mission.

Wednesday, January 24:

Pray for the success of the first Christian TV sitcom "Pastor Greg" now in its second season.

Thursday, January 25:

Pray for Eldon Frost and his team of volunteers as they faithfully work with the Pioneers each week.

Friday, January 26:

Pray that countries will follow through on their financial commitments to provide affordable drug treatments to those suffering from HIV/AIDS in Africa.

Saturday, January 27:

Pray that children in Foster Care might know safety, comfort, and love in their lives.
